VOLUNTEER

OPPORTUNITIES

- * Studio Fair - we will need volunteers to help sell tickets at the front door on Sunday Nov. 2 as well as volunteers to man / woman the guild booth. Sign up sheets at the guild.

CLASSES

*Beginner with Karen.
Wednesdays Sept. 30 - Nov.4
6:30-9:30pm

- * All class registrations at Studio 2880 15th Avenue

KUDOS

Thank you to the following volunteers for their efforts.

- * Jim R., Ken, Anne, Jim E. for all their work on the kilns over the summer and to Jim E. for the test firings.

Thank you to The Prince George Community Foundation, The Calgary Foundation, and the City of Prince George for their donations to our kiln project!

STUDIO STUFF

- * Kilns The gas kiln is operational! Anyone wishing to learn to fire the kiln needs to assist with at least 4-6 firings before they can fire on their own. Please contact Elizabeth if you are interested.
- * Clay Order: Just a reminder that the clay order was made this week - an email went out to the membership. The next clay order will be in January.
- * Clay & Chemicals: If members do need to buy clay, there are many boxes of P600 and Kenzan porcelain at the guild. There is also slip casting clay available and H443 powdered clay. If you are interested in purchasing chemicals, please contact Elizabeth.

- * Reclaim: Please note that the price of a bag of reclaim clay has increased to $5.00.

- * Job Descriptions: The revised job descriptions are now complete and in a binder located in the guild. They will also be available on the PGPG website.

- * Doors and windows: Please ensure guild doors and windows are closed / locked when you leave studio - both have been left open in the last few weeks.

Next Meeting: Oct. 5 at 7:00pm
